

Get Started with Food Rescue by Donating in the Quad Cities!

1. MAKE CONTACT

Decide where to donate food

2. SELECT GOOD FOODS

Start small with easy
to manage foods

3. KEEP RECORDS

Track donations
for a tax credit

Reduce waste. Get a tax break. Be recognized. Take pride.

Am I Liable?

We often hear that potential donors do not donate because of liability. Well, good news.

The Bill Emerson Good Samaritan Food Donation Act was created in 1996 to encourage the donation of food and grocery products to those in need. The act provides civil and/or criminal liability protection as long as you are donating in good faith (no gross negligence or intentional misconduct) to a non-profit hunger-relief agency. For more information, visit foodrescueqc.org.

Become a Member of Food Rescue!

As a Member of Food Rescue, you will be part of a food rescue recognition program that promotes and supports establishments throughout the Quad Cities for their exemplary food rescue efforts.

We want to let everyone know about the work you are doing to reduce food waste and hunger in our community.

Sign Up for Free Today!

1. Submit your establishment for consideration at foodrescueqc.org/food-rescue-recognition-program.
2. There is no step two. We will take care of the rest.

